

Sheridan Elder Research Centre

A Child's Christmas in Wales Performed by Kevin O'Grady

Please join us for an afternoon of interactive storytelling!

The most famous story of the 1950s, A Child's Christmas in Wales is written by the Welsh writer Dylan Thomas. The story is an anecdotal retelling of a Christmas from the view of a young child. Kevin, who has enthusiastically entertained audiences for more than twenty years, wishes to share the opportunity to transport you to this wonderful world in the heart of a child's imagination.

Kevin has received rave reviews from his audiences. Marilyn Riepert from Oakville says:

“Our guests were thoroughly entertained and expressed how impressed they were with Kevin's gift as a story teller. He transported us all to Wales. Personally I forgot it was Kevin standing there, I became so caught up in the story. He was able to convey both the humour and the emotion so well.”

Refreshments will be provided!

Where? Sheridan Elder Research Centre, Sheridan College, 1430 Trafalgar Road, Oakville, Room K101

When? Thursday, December 15th, 2011 from 1:30 – 3:00 pm.

Please R.S.V.P. by Wednesday, December 14th. To register please contact:

Paulina Camino at paulina.camino@sheridanc.on.ca

905 – 845 – 9430 ext. 8617

The event is complimentary but space is limited, so contact us soon!