PLEASE READ AND INITIAL: The Health and Lifestyle Expo is an educational, interactive, and entertainment driven event to promote business, products and services for people over 40. It's also a day to celebrate Zoomers and have a lot of fun! We ask that each vendor participate creatively in effort to draw visitors to your booth and create an experience. Some ideas from last year include: cognitive brain teasers, door prizes, spin the wheel for a prize, one vendor brought a Wii for people to play and visitors loved experiencing mini manicures and purchasing specialized products and crafts. Please initial that you have read and agree to participate with the interactive theme of the show: _____
